Conformal Pusishment in the Public Schools.—The subject of corporeal punishment in our public schools was pretty thoroughly canvassed in the School Board last night, during the discussion of the resolast night, during the discussion of the reso-lution offered by Dr. Newton, requiring a mouthly report to the local trustees of each district, of the number of pupils to whom that species of correction had been applied. Judging from the tenor of members' re-marks, the rod is still liberally applied to the backs of refractory boys who attend the schools, and if such should be the case, an investigation would not be cut of place. investigation would not be out of place.

ANOTHER STEET RAILBOAD PROJECT—Proposal to Accommodate the People of the North Side.—A petition is now in circulation among the property-holders on Main-street, asking for the construction of a single-track railroad along that street, from Fifth to Mulberry. We learn that a large number of the freeholders, on each side of the route, have already signed the petition but whether or already signed the petition; but whether or not the requisite majority can be obtained at present, we are unable to state, but certain present, we are unable to state, but certain it is that the Ninth and Eleventh Wards have been long enough isolated from the remainder of the city, and that if property-holders in that vicinity expect their real-estate to increase in value, they must open up a communication as practicable as that with the West End. Such a road would soon be extended until it secured all the Mt. Auburn travel, and would command excellent employs convections with other suburent ownibus connections with other subur-

THE LAST NIGHT OF THE CAMPAIGN.— Last night was a busy one among poli-tions; committees were busily engaged at all the political headquarters, examining tickets, organizing vigilance and challeng-ing committees, &c., in order that a full legal vote might be polled, and all illegal votes be rejected. A large number of individuals, more ardent than the others, made night bideous by their shouts for their favorite candidate, as if determined to make the best the short space which intervened before WM.WILSON MCGREW, the time when enthusiasm would cease to the time when enthusiasm would cease to avail any thing.

It is to be hoped that the election to-day will pass off as quietly as the last one, and as the excitement is much less, there is every reason to believe that it will. We hope, in our to-morrow's laste, to be able to give the general result in the United States; and this we will be able to do, unless the vote in some localities shall be unexpectedly close.

SCHOOL BOARD-Proceedings Last Nights The Board met at the usual hour last night, President King in the Chair. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Miss Margaret Jackson was appointed teacher in the Tenth District, at a salary of $20 per month, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the transfer of Miss Brooks to the Third Intermediate School.

A communication was received from Miles Greenwood, proposing to erect a steam heat-ing apparatus in the Ruffner School-house, and insure it for ten years, for the sum of $2.500. Mr. Wilstach moved that the proposition be accepted, and that a former resolution passed by the Board, recommending the use of stoves, be rescinded. Mr. Beattle moved to lay the whole subject over for one week, and that the clerk be in-structed to advertise for proposals for heat-ing the building, either by steam or heated air. Carried Carried. The Librarian submitted the following

Dr. Newton offered a resolution instructing the Principals of the different schools to report to the local trustees, each month, the number of pupils punished by whipping. Mr. Rowekamp moved to amend by requiring a report of the names of the pupils so AMUSEMENTS.

Practs Ornea noves.—The opera of Don Pasquels drew an audience last night which was a sight good for the eyes—especialty of the management. The great parquete circle were filled, and the fairer sex constituted at least half of the crowd; while the upper dress circle and gallery contained their usual proportion. The well-timed enthusiasm of the andience testified to the admirable manner in which the piece was played. The fine execution of this opera by the orchestra, at so short a notice, is another proof of their at so short a notice, is another proof of their

To-night the comic fairy extravaganza of Fortunio, which has been some time in rehearsal, will be played for the first time.

NATIONAL THEATER.—Another full house NATIONAL THEATRE.—Another full house greated the Wallacks at the National last hight, on the occasion of the repetition of Shakspeare's play, entitled the Winter's Tale. To-night will be concted the great drama of The Man in the Iron Mask, and there is no doubt but the theater will be filled.

PROPOSITION TO INCOMPOBATE THE VILLAGE PROPOSITION TO INCOMPOBATE THE VILLAGE OF CUMMINSVILLE.—A petition, signed by 184 of the residents of, and legal voters in, the town of Cumminsville, has been for some time pending before the Board of County Commissioners, asking the Board to incorporate that village, with the following boundaries: "Beginning at the north-east corner of section twenty-two, and running south on the section line to the middle." south on the section line to the middle of the canal, thence along the middle of the canal to Morris & Smite's subdivision of land recorded in book 170, page cight, of the Hamilton County Records, thence along the of Millcreek, thence up to the mouth of the West Branch, thence along the West Branch to the junction of the Colerain Turnpike and the Badgly-road, thence along the west side of the Badgly-road (and including the same) to the north and including the same) to the north and including the same to the proper of hear along the section line to the place of hear along. twenty-eight, and thence east along the section line to the place of beginning.

The above-described bound ries include what is usually termed Cum unswille, together with some of the surrounding farms, as also about 150 acres of the Spring-grove Cemetery.

Yesterday having been set for the hearing of the petition, a strong and well written remonstrance was received from the Directors of the Cemetery against including any of

On the reception of the remonstrance, the Board of Commissioners deemed it unadvisable to take any definite action, but laid the subject over till the fourth Wednesday in January, that all parties might have an opportunity to present their claims, when a final hearing may be expected. final hearing may be expected.

A BAROON AT LARGE IN THE STRUCTS .-An exhibition of the instinct, or, we might almost say, the reasoning faculties of the monkey, took place on Vine-street, yesterdsy. A large baboon, attached to the Palace Garden, by some means succeeded in making his escape from his cage, and immediately commenced promenading the streets, which, of commenced promenading the streets, which, commenced promenating the streets, which, of course, soon attracted to the vicinity a large concourse of boys, one of whom offered some insult to the semi-human animal, which immediately broke through the crowd, and pursued his tormentor until the latter was compelled to take refuge in a mercantile establishment on Vine-street, and secrete himself.

The baboon followed, climbed upon the counter, anymined all parts of the room, but

The baboon immediately caught his new enemy, and commenced choking and biting violently, until the poor man grew almost frantic with rage and fear. The spectators enjoyed the scene for some time, when, finding the matter more serious than they at first anticipated, they sacceeded in securing the animal and delivering him over to his keeper, who had by that time arrived on the spot.

hour, the other night, after participating in a political meeting, in a very unsteady con-dition of mind and body.

The next morning his wife told him he must have been drinking to excess the night before; but the husband stoutly denied having touched a drop. The woman then in-formed him of several absurd things he had done, each and all of which he explained on essonable grounds.

She then said to him: "When I went to she then said to him. When I went to let you in, you threw your arms about my neck, and kissing me passionately—just as you used to do before we were married—you declared you loved me."

"DId I do that?" asked the husband.

"Well, then I own up. I must have been very drunk, indeed."

COMMITTAL OF AN ALLEGED MURDERER,— A man named Edward McIntyre was yesterday committed to jail, by Justice Crone, of Mill-creek Township, on a charge of having killed a man named Johnson, at Pomeroy, several weeks sicce. Immediately after the murder of Johnson, McIntyre fled, although at that time there was no reason to suppose that he was guilty of the crime; but his flight im-mediately fixed suspicion on him, and the police of the different cities and towns were informed of the matter. He will be returned to Pomeroy, as soon as the officials from that place arrive in this city.

PRESIDENTIAL OYSTERS .- As there are, no PRESIDENTIAL OYSTERS.—As there are, no doubt, a large quantity of oysters pending on the result of the election to-day, we would refer all wishing fresh bivalves to Stiles's, No. 138 Vine-street. He receives daily from Baltimore superb oysters, which in point of size and excellence are not surpassed. Call and pay your bets with Stiles's oysters. If you want a supply for dianer, or lunch, ask for SSS, and you will find them as Mr. Stiles represents. them as Mr. Stiles represents.

Two Men Arrested on a Charge of Deal-ING IN BOOUS COIN.—Two men, Henry E. Bartt and Crawford Duvall, were yesterday taken before United States Commissioner Heys, on a charge of attempting to pass a bogus gold dollar, in a lager-beer saloon, in the Twelfth Ward. Several other coins of a similar character were found in their posses-sion. Their case was continued until Friday next, they being in the meantime committed to jail in default of $500 bail.

CENSUS ITEM. - Mr. Shaffer, who is engaged in taking the census in the West End, found an old lady who resides on Baymiller-street, who is 100 years old, and who has forgotten her own name. Her avarice appears to have grown with her age, and she does not hesi-tate to ask all who come into the house, for money. money.
